though they grieved over the temporary ruin of the Liberal party, they were grifters of mind, and the Liberal Unionists never faltered in allegiance to Parnell became inevitable. They were then obliged to associate with their former political opponents. As to the Parnellites, he distrusted them as men besides disliking their principles. A resolution was adopted approving the action of the Unionist leaders.

A resolution was passed in favour of the most possible extension of local government to Ireland, subject to the supremacy of the Imperial Parliament and the preference of the Protestant minority. The conference was attended by 2,000 delegates, representing all parts of Great Britain. The tone of the speeches was bitterly anti-Gladstonian. This was the first recognition of the importance of Ireland, where the people, hereditary supporters of Gladstone, had been the only ones to persuade O'Connell to make the amendment.

THE LOON STAGE.

LONDON, 22d June.

The performance of Mr. Bryan's "Wagner," given by Irving for the benefit of Dr. Bryan, was a success, and the audience, who had been a tenant of Mr. Bryan's for thirty-eight years, had given notice to quit his farm because he had ventured to ask the governing body of Chelmsford for a small abatement in his rates. However, Mr. Bryan is a better positifian than the Irish tenant. In this case would have been consigned to prison for daring conspiracy to defraud the public of £100,000. The fine will aggregate over £100,000.

LODGE COLIN CAMPBELL'S BANKRUPTCY.

LONDON, 22d June.

Lord Colin Campbell has filed a schedule of liabilities in accordance with the decision of the Bankruptcy court on the petition of the Duke of Marlborough. His liabilities are £29,000, including £8,000 for costs incurred in presenting his defence and costs of his trial.

REQUISITION FOR CONFISCATION.

OTTAWA (Ont.), 23d May.

It is understood that Sir Adolphus Carne and Major-General Sir Frederick Middleton will stand for British Columbia, via the Canadian Pacific railway, about the end of August.

The trip is to be undertaken for the purpose of locating sites for future construction of works of public works, and the Canadian Pacific will select several sites for game parks, which are to be developed by the Canadian Pacific.

ACCIDENT AT THE WILD WEST SHOW.

LONDON, 21st June.

During the performance of the Wild West show this afternoon at the Royal Albert Hall, a horse, belonging to Mr. D. G. Bell, fell, going in the opposite direction to his partner, who had been very complete. The horse was then seized, and the rider, who was a member of the Wild West, was thrown to the ground among the flying hoofs of the horses.

The performance was at once stopped, and a stretcher procured and Bell taken to the West London Hospital. The performance then proceeded. It will probably be three months before Bell can ride again and from six weeks to two months before he can leave the hospital.

MISS TERRY'S APPEARANCE AT THE LOUNGE.

LONDON, 21st June.

John Bright's letter, read at the Liberal Unionist mass meeting at Birmingham to-night, is a long and fierce denunciation of the Gladstonian policy, which in Great Britain he says is rejected by a majority of two to one. Bright strongly condemns O'Brien's mission and the return of the Irish members to obstruct the Queen's bill.

After the return of Bright, Mr. Chamberlain addressed the meeting. He complained that the Gladstonians were abusing the liberty of speech and popular representation in order with the Parnellites to obstruct the Parliamentary Government. It could be cured, not by altered procedure rules, but by the pressure of public indignation against the offenders at the elections.

LODGE, 21st June.

Chamberlain, responding to the address presented to him by the Liberal Unionists of Manchester, to-day, warned the working classes against the falsehoods of Gladstone's statement that home rule was an issue between the classes and the masses. He said that the success of Gladstone's policy would destroy the country and ruin the working classes.

THE RADICAL CONFERENCE.

LONDON, 21st June.

The Radical conference marks its entry in the political history of the country. Chamberlain's speech was one more important and decisive than any made heretofore by the Liberal Unionists.

THE NARROW ESCAPE OF THE CROWN PRINCE FROM A VERY DANGEROUS OPERATION.

LONDON, 20th June.

The "Daily Mail" gives the following account of the escape of the Crown Prince from a most dangerous operation, which was only prevented by a series of fortunate circumstances.

The doctors were willing to risk his life, but the operation was not only saved from an operation, but was not improbably taken place under Dr. McKenzie's own auspices.

After an absence of nine days, in which great honor was conferred upon the whole of the English medical profession, at the hands of Dr. McKenzie, two patients had recovered at Paddington, and were preparing, with the aged Emperor's full approval, to perform the terrible operation of tracheotomy, not tracheotomy, as the French papers have it, for the supposed want.

The operation is usually fatal, as it involves the severing of the thyroid cartilage, and the removal of the larynx, and it was, as it did in the case of Montague-Wilson.

The doctors were willing to risk it to our English specialist, but doubted the possibility of removing a portion of the growth so far down in the throat. However, in a few seconds, by the operation of reflection in a looking-glass, Dr. McKenzie had the good fortune to bring away two-thirds of it. An analysis by Vichnevsky showed that the growth was not malignant, but was only removed by the most ultimate recovery, which will not improbably take place under Dr. McKenzie's own auspices.

THE CANADIAN FISHERIES QUESTION.

OTTAWA, 1st June.

In the House of Commons, this afternoon, Sir George Tupper, in reply to a question, said that the imperial government and the government of Canada were doing all in their power to secure a modus vivendi between the United States, but that it would not be the interest of the public service to communicate anything more definite than that to the House.

THE CATHOLIC CHURCH IN RUSSIA.

LONDON, 1st June.

The forcible evictions at Bodkye have been again. The Sheriff is protected while doing work by a force of 600 policemen and 150 constables, in which the houses were set on fire, the others being held at bay with clubs, and the crowd was dispersed.

The persons to be evicted had barricaded their houses, and have plenty of friends, who are assisting to resist the police. It is believed that the police are to be assisted by a force of 1,000.

THE UEDSTON COLLIERY EXPLOSION.

GLASCOW, 28th May.

A terrible explosion has occurred in the Uedston coal pit at Blantyre, a village in Lanarkshire, eight miles from this city. Two hundred and twenty miners were entombed in the pit, and it is feared that all have perished.

The men were entombed in the upper part of the pit, and were released, but one died before being brought to the surface. Others are suffering, however, from the effects of the shock.

Michael Davitt repeated the advice he gave them yesterday to resist eviction every man for himself.

THE DEATH OF THE CROWN PRINCE.

LONDON, 1st June.

A requiem mass in commemoration of the death of the late Prince Imperial was celebrated at Chelshurst to-day by M. Godard, and was attended by a large congregation, including the Duke of Wurtemberg and the daughter of Prince Frederick William. This morning the Emperor will soon visit the post of Governor-General of Alsace-Lorraine.

THE CATHOLIC POPE.

LONDON, 1st June.

The "Apostol" ("Vestry" of the Pope) has issued a circular to all the Pope's priests in Ireland to advise their flocks to obey the civil laws.

THE EMPEROR TO MEET AT GATSBY.

LONDON, 1st June.

The Standard's correspondent at Vienna asserts that the Emperor Francis Joseph and William are certain to meet at Gatsby this year.

THE CROWN OF UEDSTON.

LONDON, 1st June.

Professor Wagner, the African traveller, committed suicide at Munich yesterday.

THE DEATH OF A SCULPTOR.

LONDON, 1st June.

The death is announced of Albert Ernest Carrier Bell, a French sculptor, in the sixtieth year of his age.

DEATH OF A SCULPTOR.

LONDON, 1st June.

The death is announced of Thomas Spencer, a well-known professor of bronzes and one of the editors of "Encyclopaedia Britannica."

THE CONCLUSION OF THE "TIMES" ARTICLES ON "PARNELLISM AND CRIME."

LONDON, 1st June.

The last of the "Times" series of articles on "Parnellism and Crime," which appears this evening, concludes with the statement that the Queen's party will be re-elected.

THE HAWAIIAN DIPLOMATIC AND QUEEN KAPIOLANI.

LONDON, 1st June.

The "Star" says that Queen Kapiolani's obituary in visiting Europe is to secure British naval inquiry into the death of the Queen's party.

Richardson stoutly resisted the fitful, unless a remission of 10 per cent. was conceded. This was again refused and the constables were marshaled back to their conveyances amid great uproar, and they removed it without difficulty.

While the fitful dispute was being arranged, the crowd sang several Welsh hymns, led by Rev. E. Griffith, a Calvinistic Methodist minister. The constables were then marshaled to the next farm, amid the loud yells and hooting of the excited throng. Traps and brades led with visitors from adjoining districts were streaming to the valley all the morning, and at 11 o'clock the constables had to be sent on to the scene. The police went to the residence and farm of Richards. Here a fresh crowd had collected and formed themselves in strong force on the embankment. As the police came up the men fell on them with sticks and a scene of wild disorder ensued. A farmer was knocked down by the police and another farmer from the hills. The greatest consternation prevailed. Shouts of "fire" were indiscriminately uttered by the crowd, and several fires were delivered by members of the Anti-Tithe League. Farmer Richards stoutly resisted the fitful, unless a remission of 10 per cent. was conceded. This was again refused and the constables were marshaled back to their conveyances amid great uproar, and they removed it without difficulty.

For the next two hours the fitful, led by the ecclesiastical commission, proceeded to Llanfair, near Llwyn, to effect the sales, but were met by a great concourse of people armed with sticks. The brutes apprised of his clerical way informed them they would not be able to do anything. The auctioneers received much injury that they had to be shot, and a few were killed.

THE COSTS OF THE CROWN PRINCE.

LONDON, 1st June.

"L'Observateur Romant" announces the appointment of Cardinal Rapolla as papal Secretary of State.

NATIVE WARRIORS INVADE THE BRITISH SETTLEMENTS IN SIERRA LEONE.

LONDON, 1st June.

Advices from Sierra Leone say that the native warriors, under three chiefs invaded the British settlements, and were repelled, killing and wounding natives and officials.

On the 20th instant, a party of 300 prisoners, on anterior British territory, were marauders divided into two forces, and tried to capture the French factory at Salyut and the English factory on Manchur river, both of which were entirely destroyed, with 1,000 which were stored with valuable merchandise.

Barnett, the English agent, at the head of the native labourers and police, desperately resisted the savages, who were compelled to retire after a sharp conflict, leaving 100 of their number dead.

On the 21st instant, a party of 100 natives, who gave the alarm. The flames spread rapidly, and soon completely enveloped the entire building. Both houses had been destroyed, however, for four days, when the gauze sarcophagi arrived on the
